Mission Coop Sunday

This year's Mission Coop will be conducted by Fr. Thomas Au. He will be here to speak about the Mission work in Taiwan on the weekend of July 30th. He is a priest of the Lincoln Diocese being sent to Taiwan to be hospital chaplain of the Sisters of Our Lady of China. He will give the Appeal on behalf of the sisters working in a Catholic hospital, two nursing homes and home health care in the rural areas of Taiwan. They were originally formed in Mainland China but expelled by the communist in the 1950's. Their primary apostolate is working for the rural poor without easily accessible health care.

Dear Parishioners,

This week I am on vacation with some of my priest friends. We are doing the touristy things in the Black Hills and maybe I will ride my bicycle a little. During the week I will continue to pray for our parish and the work that we will be doing together. Please remember me and my friends in your prayers. Pray that our vacation is restful and that we have safe travel to and from our destination.

Just a reminder, Tim Staples will be speaking at the Cathedral in Lincoln on the 19th. If you have not heard him speak and are interested in a boost in your faith, please consider making the trip to Lincoln to listen to him.

After hearing comments that my office is empty, I decided to hang some pictures on the walls in my office and throughout the Rectory. I'm beginning to feel like I'm moved in. I also wanted to do this before I left on vacation, so that when I return it will feel like I'm returning home. I have a long way to go in getting to know the community and remember names. Please be patient with me, as my brain is another year older and not working as quickly as in the past. I think that I will take an old directory along with me on vacation to review pictures and names. Since I am now officially your pastor, I have the responsibility to offer Mass for you on every Sunday, so this Sunday I will be offering Mass for you in the Black Hills. God Bless you, and I will see you when I return.

-Msgr. Tucker
