A LETTER FROM MONSIGNOR

Dear Parishioners,

This week I had a good conversation about the survey with Lisa McArdle from Catholic Stewardship Consultants in Augusta, Georgia. As I mentioned the full results of the survey will be presented in the November newsletter. When I say full, it is going to be the questions and answers, with percentages, but without the comments or recommendations from CSC. I will begin writing and talking about comments and recommendations after I take a little time to pray about the results and with the help of the committees and councils to decide on which things we need to address first, and put together a plan for the next few years.

With that said, I do have a few initial thoughts. In looking at statistics and reading recommendations and comments I have a couple of important insights. First of all, and I have mentioned this before, we had a great response to this survey. Second, the data clearly points out there is a need to change some things around here. This is not a bad thing, because it points out that people care about their faith and this community and they want things to be great! If we think that we are doing things perfectly, then we have blinders on. It is difficult for us to take a critical look at ourselves and the way we are doing things, but it is the only way to grow and to do the things that God is calling us to do better. We have to be convinced that our self-worth and goodness are not connected to an approval rating from others, but is directly connected to my relationship with God. That means that a critical eye, and the challenge to improve and move forward does not change my personal goodness and self-worth. It hurts to admit that we aren't doing a good job with something, but there is a lot of ego involved in that feeling. I want to do a better job and I'm sure everyone in the parish wants to do better, so we just need to get over the pain and focus on becoming better.

One of the greatest comments and a very truthful comment is that, "We are a sleeping giant, that just swats the pesky fly of a new idea". The statement is acknowledging that there is tons of potential in the parish, but it is also expressing a level of frustration that things are not being accomplished. This sentiment applies to every area in the survey, that is why it is necessary for me to take some time to pray and reflect on what is most important to address first, and I need to rely on the advice of the Stewardship Committee, the Parish Council and the School Advisory board to put together the plan and time line for these changes, recommended by CSC.

Now, as you are reading this some may be thinking I'm going to push my agenda and take a power hungry approach to change. For those who know me, that is not my approach, and the impetus for change comes from your comments. The time is now to do something, and I do believe there is sufficient information in the survey results to give us a clear understanding of what we need to do. Please pray for discernment and perseverance to move forward in working together to make St. Vincent de Paul Parish a great parish, not for our glory but for the glory of God.

God Bless.....Msgr. Tucker
