MESSAGE FROM MSGR. TUCKER:

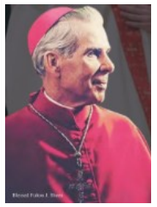

Dear Parishioners,

"The Priest is not his own." These words from Blessed Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen form the theme for this year's Bishop's Appeal for Vocations. It is both a gift and responsibility for all of us to help the next generation of priests to be formed in this attitude and disposition of selflessness – the priest is not his own. The formation of our seminarians is rooted in identity in Christ so that they may give themselves totally to serve Christ and His Church.

Your donation to the annual Bishop's Appeal for Vocations pays most of the tuition of our seminarians in their time at St. Gregory's and pays the entire tuition for those at St. Charles in Philadelphia and at Mount St. Mary's in Emmitsburg, MD, which costs the Diocese nearly $800,000. Our parish contribution to the appeal will be $12,000 and we need the generosity of each parishioner to pay our portion of the Diocesan expenditure for the education of our Seminarians.

If you receive envelopes in the mail, there is a white envelope in the packet marked, "Bishop's Appeal for Seminarians". Place your donation in the envelope to support the education of our young men pursuing to serve our Diocese as a priest. If you do not get envelopes in the mail, you can write on an envelope the same, "Bishop's Appeal for Seminarians" and place it in the collection basket or bring it to the Church Office. I appreciate your generosity and hope that we can reach this goal by the end of October. Thank you and God Bless you.

Msgr. Tucker

"Only by being a lamb offered through forgetfulness of worldly superiority does the priest become the shepherd of souls." Bl. Fulton J. Sheen
