Message from Msgr. Tucker: November 15, 2026

Dear Parishioners,

In the bulletin this weekend you will find the annual stewardship renewal form, and a report that shows our profit/loss data from the last three years. Please take some time to complete the stewardship form and return it next week and place it in the collection basket, or bring it to the Church office.

Our daily lives provide us for many opportunities to act as good stewards. Our time, talent and our treasure are gifts entrusted to us by God. The Gospel relating the story about the talents is a great reflection on these gifts we receive from God. Even the person that received one talent has at least a respect for the gift received. He did not want to lose or destroy the gift, so he buried it to be able to return it in the condition that he had received it.

Obviously from the story, this is not what the master intended to be done with the gifts given to him. The gifts we have received are to be used, for ourselves and for others, but most importantly to do God's will. In the measure in which we give, we will receive, and the Lord's generosity to the one who gives, cannot be outdone. God is pleased when we use the gifts that He has given us to accomplish His will.

The question I want you to ponder as you take time to complete the stewardship form is; "What responsibility has God given me to complete?" He has a plan for how He wants you to use the time, talent and treasure that He has given you. Following His plan, you will do His will, and your time, talent and treasure will reap abundant fruit. Pray to understand the responsibility God has given you in your family, with your friends, in this community, and in your Church, and then determine how you can be a good or better steward of these responsibilities in this coming year. God bless you.

Msgr. Tucker

G & G Update The crews are wrapping up the construction of block walls. They will soon be working to pour floors in the remaining areas to make way for erecting the roof. Attention is obviously currently on the new construction. We must remember the new construction needs to be completed before we: start renovations to relocate the parish offices; repurpose space for a parish gathering area and multiple meeting rooms and; update the Narthex, Social Hall, and restrooms. It will be exciting to see all of these updates as our project progresses.
